LIGHT YOUR WORLD WITH HOPE	Center yourself in a quiet stillness that sustains your hope.	Expand your hope by focusing on the light even in the midst of the dark times.	Choose to notice even small signs of hope that can help to transform any despair.	Walk by faith, not by sight. Be hopeful that everything can support your Highest Good.	Create a hopeful outlook by naming and releasing one of your fears today.	Cultivate hope by deepen- ing your belief to trust: I am "enough. "	Hope for the best. At the same time, release any expectations about spe- cific outcomes.

LIGHT YOUR WORLD WITH PEACE	Peace begins within. Ground yourself with deep breathing to radiate peace.	Instead of judging others, be the peace and change you wish to see in them.	On this Feast of St. Nicholas , be generous in your thoughts and ac- tions towards others.	Listen, identify, and re- spond to the underlying needs and desires that fuel most conflicts.	Honor this Bodhi Day of Mahayana—or Buddha's Enlightenment by expand- ing your capacity to re- spond vs. react.	Explore ways to find mutually satisfying solu- tions to resolve prob- lems.	Be patient with yourself, and others, as you deep- en new skills of being an effective peacemaker.
